Dr. Adjmal Sirak is a Consultant in NERA's Energy Practice, based in Berlin. He works with clients from Germany and throughout Europe and the Middle East, with a focus on the energy and communication sectors. Dr. Sirak has provided advice to major companies in regulated network industries, energy trading firms, MNOs and MVNOs, regulatory authorities, and infrastructure investors on a wide range of topics such as arbitration support, tariff review, cost of capital estimation, market modelling, principles of incentive regulation, efficiency factor estimation, and service quality incentives.

Dr. Sirak supported the operator of a European gas import pipeline on the implications of the 2019 amendment to Directive 2009/73/EC, the cornerstone of European gas market regulation. He also supported a major European logistics firm in estimating damages to its customers arising from alleged breaches of GDPR.
