Bernardo Danesi is a London-based economist who advises multinational companies on their intra-group cross-border transactions, assisting in the implementation of optimal pricing policies.

Mr. Danesi has been involved in a wide range of transfer pricing cases related to the financial services industry, including fund fee pricing, intercompany financing, and guarantee fee pricing. Furthermore, he has contributed to the delineation of value chain analyses for clients in a variety of sectors, including shipping and logistics, financial services, eyewear, and art auction houses. Mr. Danesi has worked on several disputes in the context of state aid claims and tax settlements.

Education
MSc in economics, University College London BSc in economics, University of Siena

Publications
• Applying the Arm's Length Principle to Intra Group Financial Transactions: A Reference Guide
• Fixed Rate Loan Transactions: A Case Study
• Price Factoring Transaction Chapters in Intra Group Financial Transitions Reference Guide
• Irish Department of Finance Changes to Local Transfer Pricing Regulation
• NERA Experts Offer Guidance Through HMRC's Diverted Profits Tax Legislation

Practice Areas
Intellectual Property
Transfer Pricing
Valuation

Languages
English, Italian

About NERA
NERA Economic Consulting (www.nera.com) is a global firm of experts dedicated to applying economic, finance, and quantitative principles to complex business and legal challenges. For over half a century, NERA’s economists have been creating strategies, studies, reports, expert testimony, and policy recommendations for government authorities and the world’s leading law firms and corporations. With its main office in New York City, NERA serves clients from more than 25 offices across North America, Europe, and Asia Pacific.