

Dr. Chris Stomberg

Associate Director

Contact

chris.stomberg@nera.com

Washington, DC: +1 202 466 9219

Dr. Stomberg is an economic expert with deep expertise in health care and life sciences, who brings a quantitative and rigorous approach to his work. He has served as expert witness in several matters, and has led numerous litigation and consulting engagements. Dr. Stomberg has focused on a range of issues affecting these industries, including:

- Pharmaceutical pricing and reimbursement at all levels of the market, including pharmacies, PBMs, insurers, wholesalers/distributors, and manufacturers
- Provider reimbursement issues, such as retail and specialty pharmacies, hospitals, dialysis facilities, and laboratory service companies
- Intellectual property, antitrust, fraud/false claims, anti-kickback, and contract disputes
- Competition, vertical issues, and foreclosure in the pharmaceutical and medical device industries
- Product promotion and quality issues
- Damages, causation/liability, and class certification
- Modeling, forecasting, data-science, statistics, and sampling

Education

PhD in economics (Econometrics concentration), University of California, San Diego

MA in economics, George Washington University

BA in economics, University of Massachusetts, Amherst

Publications

- Glossary of Pharmaceutical Terms and Acronyms

Practice Areas

Intellectual Property

International Arbitration

Life Sciences

White Collar, Investigations and Enforcement

Languages

English, Swedish, Spanish

About NERA

NERA Economic Consulting (www.nera.com) is a global firm of experts dedicated to applying economic, finance, and quantitative principles to complex business and legal challenges. For over half a century, NERA's economists have been creating strategies, studies, reports, expert testimony, and policy recommendations for government authorities and the world's leading law firms and corporations. With its main office in New York City, NERA serves clients from more than 25 offices across North America, Europe, and Asia Pacific.