Biography

Jens Rubart has more than 15 years of experience covering all major transfer pricing consulting issues for global clients, with a particular focus on value chain, business restructurings, TP planning and documentation topics, IP valuation, and intercompany finance.

Dr. Rubart has provided economic analyses and advice for tax audit defense, dispute resolutions, and financial court litigation. In addition to TP topics, he has advised clients on competition law and antitrust matters. His advice covers compliance topics, particularly regarding rebates, merger analyses, and cartel damages quantifications.

Dr. Rubart has provided expert opinion reports in relation to cartel damages and assisted clients with economic analyses related to mergers under review by local competition authorities. In litigation, he has been involved in multiple cases considering cartel damage quantifications.

In his work, Dr. Rubart regularly produced tailored and focused work products that ensured the greatest possible benefit for his clients, particularly in litigation proceedings. Complex methodological issues and procedures are presented in an accessible way such that the essential argument for the client's position is in the foreground.

Dr. Rubart specializes in advanced statistics and econometrics. Further he has more than a decade practical experience in conducting company valuations for tax and transfer pricing purposes.

Dr. Rubart is a member of the German Economic Association (Verein für Socialpolitik) and the German Statistical Society (Deutsche Statistische Gesellschaft). Prior to joining NERA, he was a Senior Consultant at a Big Four firm. He also served as Counsel and Senior Economist at a global law firm for over a decade.
