

Dr. Philippe Fromenteau

Consultant

Contact

philippe.fromenteau@nera.com

Berlin: +49 30 700 1506 96

Dr. Philippe Fromenteau is a Consultant in NERA's Antitrust and Competition Practice, based in Berlin. Dr. Fromenteau advises clients throughout Europe in all aspects of competition and antitrust matters. His experience is primarily in international arbitration and cartel damages litigation, including settlement negotiations. Furthermore, Dr. Fromenteau regularly advises on business disputes in the energy sector. This includes for example the determination of lost profits due to power plant outages. Overall, his work covers a wide range of industries such as fast-moving consumer goods, pharmaceuticals, and the automotive sector, as well as electricity markets.

Dr. Fromenteau's academic research has been published in the RAND Journal of Economics.

Education

PhD in economics, Ludwig Maximilian University Munich

MSc in economics, Ludwig Maximilian University Munich

Practice Areas

Antitrust and Competition

Energy

International Arbitration

Languages

German, English, French

About NERA

NERA Economic Consulting (www.nera.com) is a global firm of experts dedicated to applying economic, finance, and quantitative principles to complex business and legal challenges. For over half a century, NERA's economists have been creating strategies, studies, reports, expert testimony, and policy recommendations for government authorities and the world's leading law firms and corporations. With its main office in New York City, NERA serves clients from more than 25 offices across North America, Europe, and Asia Pacific.