

Emilie Feyler

Consultant

Contact

emilie.feyler@nera.com

White Plains, NY: +1 914 448 4052

Emilie Feyler is a Consultant in NERA's Antitrust and Competition practice, based in White Plains, NY. Emilie Feyler conducts analysis in the economics of antitrust, commercial damages and class certification to prepare expert reports, testimony, and research. She has expertise in analyzing the competitive effects of proposed mergers and acquisitions and in estimating damages in antitrust cases involving cartels, abuse of market power, and intellectual property infringement. Her experience spans a number of industries, including telecommunications, health insurance, and consumer products.

Emilie Feyler has received her master's degree in economics from Sciences Po Paris. She taught econometrics and statistics for a graduate course at Sciences Po Paris. Before joining NERA, she conducted research for the United Nations and the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development.

Education

MS in economics, Sciences Po Paris

BS in economics, Sciences Po Paris

Publications

- Algorithms & Antitrust: An Overview of EU and National Case Law

Practice Areas

Antitrust and Competition

Languages

English, French

About NERA

NERA Economic Consulting (www.nera.com) is a global firm of experts dedicated to applying economic, finance, and quantitative principles to complex business and legal challenges. For over half a century, NERA's economists have been creating strategies, studies, reports, expert testimony, and policy recommendations for government authorities and the world's leading law firms and corporations. With its main office in New York City, NERA serves clients from more than 25 offices across North America, Europe, and Asia Pacific.