Ian Pasinato is a Los Angeles-based economist who specializes in health care and antitrust and competition proceedings. He applies economic and statistical analysis, analysis framework, and other methodologies to provide trusted expert knowledge for health care and antitrust investigations.

Mr. Pasinato has performed economic analyses for a variety of health care and antitrust sectors including hospital discharges, health insurer claims, and a range of different public health care database sources. He has also completed economic analyses for numerous proposed hospital mergers.

Education
MA in economics, University of Southern California
BA in economics and business law, University of Southern California

Practice Areas
Antitrust and Competition

Languages
English

About NERA
NERA Economic Consulting (www.nera.com) is a global firm of experts dedicated to applying economic, finance, and quantitative principles to complex business and legal challenges. For over half a century, NERA's economists have been creating strategies, studies, reports, expert testimony, and policy recommendations for government authorities and the world's leading law firms and corporations. With its main office in New York City, NERA serves clients from more than 25 offices across North America, Europe, and Asia Pacific.