Jielei Mao provides economic and financial consulting in connection with securities litigation and commercial disputes. She has extensive experience analyzing economic issues relating to class certification and damages for securities class actions in Canada and the United States.

Ms. Mao is experienced in quantifying damages in matters involving allegations of negligence, fraud, contract disputes, intellectual property disputes, and other commercial litigation. Her work also covers advisory for strategy and tax planning purposes, including the valuation of financial assets, business operations, and intellectual property.

Ms. Mao holds a Chartered Financial Analyst® designation (CFA® charterholder) and is also qualified as a Chartered Business Valuator.

Education

MPhil, Economics, University of Cambridge
BA, Honours Economics, McGill University

Publications

- Trends in Canadian Securities Class Actions: 2022 Update

Practice Areas

Securities and Finance

About NERA

NERA Economic Consulting (www.nera.com) is a global firm of experts dedicated to applying economic, finance, and quantitative principles to complex business and legal challenges. For over half a century, NERA’s economists have been creating strategies, studies, reports, expert testimony, and policy recommendations for government authorities and the world’s leading law firms and corporations. With its main office in New York City, NERA serves clients from more than 25 offices across North America, Europe, and Asia Pacific.