

Oceana Wang

Consultant

Contact

oceana.wang@nera.com

Chicago: 312 573 4802

Ms. Oceana Wang is a Consultant in NERA Economic Consulting's Chicago office where she works in the firm's Transfer Pricing practice. Ms. Wang specializes in developing economic and financial models to advise businesses, law firms, and government agencies on multinational transfer pricing subjects and intangible valuations.

She has provided transfer pricing related consultations to a wide range of industries, including major clients in the Fashion and Luxury, Pharmaceutical, Automotive, Financial Services, Manufacturing, Oil and Gas, and Technology sectors. She had assisted with resolving complex global tax and finance issues faced by multinational corporations and has participated in several international tax and transfer pricing litigations. Ms. Wang has significant experience in supporting the preparation and implementation of unilateral/bilateral Advance Pricing Agreements (APAs).

Ms. Wang holds an MBA degree from International Business School at Brandeis University and specialized in economics and finance. She received her bachelor's degree in Economics from Central University of Finance and Economics in China with a minor in accounting.

Education

MBA, International Business School at Brandeis University

BA in economics, Central University of Finance and Economics

Practice Areas

Transfer Pricing

About NERA

NERA Economic Consulting (www.nera.com) is a global firm of experts dedicated to applying economic, finance, and quantitative principles to complex business and legal challenges. For over half a century, NERA's economists have been creating strategies, studies, reports, expert testimony, and policy recommendations for government authorities and the world's leading law firms and corporations. With its main office in New York City, NERA serves clients from more than 25 offices across North America, Europe, and Asia Pacific.