

Rafael Sambeat

Consultant

Contact

rafael.sambeat@nera.com

London: +44 (20) 7659 8816

Rafael Sambeat specializes in antitrust and market investigations, mergers, and other matters in the telecommunications, retail, aggregates, and pharmaceutical sectors. Mr. Sambeat's experience includes assisting the boards of multinational companies in their merger filings to the CMA, assessing the contribution of video-on-demand providers to European content production, quantifying damages in complex cartel litigation, and evaluating the impact of Network Sharing Agreements (NSAs) in the Czech telecommunications sector.

Mr. Sambeat has significant experience applying statistical and data visualization software tools to competition cases, including the estimation of damages for price fixing, buyer cartels, and other forms of collusive anticompetitive behavior, and assessing competition in local markets using geospatial tools.

Education

MS in competition and market regulation, Pompeu Fabra University, Barcelona School of Economics (BSE)

BA in economics, Complutense University of Madrid

Practice Areas

Antitrust and Competition

About NERA

NERA Economic Consulting (www.nera.com) is a global firm of experts dedicated to applying economic, finance, and quantitative principles to complex business and legal challenges. For over half a century, NERA's economists have been creating strategies, studies, reports, expert testimony, and policy recommendations for government authorities and the world's leading law firms and corporations. With its main office in New York City, NERA serves clients from more than 25 offices across North America, Europe, and Asia Pacific.